

Bruja de Mentira

one sheet 2025

With four years of experience, Bruja de Mentira has established herself as one of the most influential, sought after and active DJs and producers of the electronic music scene in Mexico. Since her debut in 2020, she has played in more than 100 venues across the country and at international events in Chicago and Guatemala. His focus is on connecting with the audience and building solid sets that keep the dance floor moving. In addition to his DJ work, he also produces original music, with his first single "Diamantes" already available and a new release scheduled for 2025.
